SPHERIX WINS SECOND PROTEST OF RESERVATION SERVICE AWARD
GAO Sustains Spherix's Challenge for Second Time in Less Than One Year

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BELTSVILLE, MD, Spherix Incorporated (NASDAQ/SPEX) today announced that the Government Accountability Office (GAO) has sustained Spherix's challenge to the USDA Forest Service's recent award of the National Recreation Reservation Service (NRRS) contract to ReserveAmerica, a Ticketmaster subsidiary.

GAO is expected to release full details of its October 20, 2005 decision in the near future on the agency's website. The status of the case is currently listed as "sustained/approved" on the site. GAO recommended that the Department of Agriculture reopen the competition and make a new award decision. This is the second time GAO has found the Forest Service's attempt to award the NRRS contract to ReserveAmerica to be flawed. In December 2004, the GAO sustained Spherix's protest of the first award to ReserveAmerica.

Spherix President and CEO Richard Levin said, "Spherix continues to believe we are the best choice for the NRRS. Our continued success in competing against ReserveAmerica in State reservation system procurements demonstrates that we provide the best combination of value, technology and experience." Levin stated that Spherix expects to continue to perform its National Park Service contract while the NRRS competition continues.
